

The Show Must Go On

intro

G/D

G Bm
So your girl wants you to move back to new york city
C G D
I understand but it's such a pity
G Bm
to bring a close on what's just beginning
C D
don't you want to see that record spinning

Chorus:

G C
the show must go on (don't throw it all away)
G C
the thrill is almost gone (just find some time to play)
G C
you always knew something was wrong (you know we'd rather see you stay)
G C Am
just put your faith into a song (don't lose hope we'll find a way)
Am
the show must go on...

G/D

G Bm
London's calling someone else's name
C G D
A one-way ticket to interstellar fame
G Bm
no one knew quite who to blame
C D
it's such a shame but it's still the same

Chorus

G/D

(third verse, not on record)

G Bm
Who can say not to dream your dreams
C G D
That's not the way it is but i know that's how it seems
G Bm
the basement's cold and it's still so hard to wait
C D
Let's do it now while it's not too late

G C
The show must go on...
